Martha's Home Children Receive Christmas Blessings!

Thanks to Vivint. Home Security employees, who generously chose the children of Martha's Home to benefit from an opportunity given to them by the company. Nikolas Balderaz, Field Service Supervisor, explained that it's company policy for Vivint. to match employee donations at Christmastime.

The Amarillo group researched and found that Martha's Home is an organization helping homeless families get a fresh start in life and offers the necessary tools and resources to become self-sufficient. It was a team decision, and nine employees collected $1,100, with a match from Vivint., making a donation of $2,200.

They chose to buy Christmas presents for the children, and called ahead of time and talked to Teresa Gallagher, Martha's Home Shelter Manager, to learn the children's ages and sizes. Then one sunny day in December, the Vivint. orange vehicle, came rolling up to Martha's Home bearing loads of toys and presents for the children of Martha's Home.

Also, a special thanks goes out to:
Center City Furniture
Lawrence & Sharon Oeschger
Legal Society of Amarillo College
Underwood Law Firm
for their generous Christmas gift donations!

"Jeans Day" Benefits Martha's Home

Brown, Graham & Company, P.C.,

Certified Public Accountants and Consultants, have long been supporters of many non-profit entities for decades but one of our favorite charities came into our hearts when our Director of Marketing, Judy Stark was serving as a Martha's Home Board Member.

In 2010 Brown, Graham & Company started "Jeans Day" by picking one day a month where employees could donate money to a local charity and in return have the opportunity to wear jeans to work. It was a hit! A win-win for the employees at BGC and a local charity. Each month a different charity is chosen for the donations.

Each year Brown, Graham & Company and Martha's Home work together to "give back to those in need".

Tickets Now On Sale!

The Second Chance Prom is roaring back for its sixth big year on March 29th, with its 2014 theme, The Roaring Twenties! You'll rewind 90 years, to a 1920s-era evening of big-timers, flappers, hoofers and vamps, all dolled-up and sassy! The event will feature an exciting evening of music and dancing while indulging in heavy hors d'oeuvres, and a cash bar—or speakeasy, if you will! Also, silent & live auctions, a Charleston dance contest, and rumored appearances by the likes of Mae West, Al Capone, Bugsy Malone, and Henry Ford.

The Second Chance Prom is open to the public, and is known as "the most fun fundraiser you'll ever go to!" Tickets are $45, thru all Panhandle ticket outlets, including United Supermarkets and the Civic Center Box Office.
